New Delhi, Delhi Jun 22, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - HM Aviation is proud to announce the successful completion of the DGCA CPL Ground School course by our latest batch of student pilots. Over the past 16 weeks, these aspiring aviators have shown exceptional dedication, mastering critical subjects including General Navigation , Flight Instruments , Radio Navigation, Aviation Meteorology, Air Regulations, Human Performance and RTR.

We are thrilled to share that these students have successfully passed the DGCA Air Navigation and Aviation Meteorology examinations with outstanding results. With their Air Regulations and RTR exams approaching, we remain confident in their continued success and preparedness.

“Our faculty has thoroughly enjoyed guiding and mentoring this motivated group of future pilots,” said the General Manager at HM Aviation “Their enthusiasm, commitment and drive have been truly inspiring and it has been an honour to be a part of their aviation journey.”

As a token of celebration, we have shared a few memorable pictures from their final day at HM Aviation's training facility in Delhi —moments that mark the beginning of a promising future in aviation.

We extend our heartfelt congratulations to all graduates and wish them clear skies and safe journeys as they take the next step in their pilot careers.
