

Dr. Carolyn Maher Hanna Brings Expertise and Compassion to the Fight Against Breast Cancer

New York City, New York Jun 18, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Carolyn Maher Hanna, MD, is a dedicated radiologist specializing in breast imaging, a vital subspecialty within diagnostic radiology that plays a crucial role in the early and accurate detection of breast cancer. She practices at Lenox Hill Radiology, which offers accessible outpatient imaging services throughout the metropolitan New York area.

Dr. Hanna was drawn to the field of radiology during her time in medical school stating, “Imaging is at the forefront of healthcare, representing an evolution of the external physical examination into an internal examination.” She is passionate about her subspecialty in breast imaging, “The radiologist is often the first physician that a patient with breast cancer sees during their treatment journey.” She views imaging as a revolutionary advancement in healthcare, transitioning from external examinations to detailed internal assessments.

A first-generation American, Dr. Hanna was born in Cairo, Egypt, and later moved to the New York/New Jersey area before relocating to Florida. She earned her Medical Degree from the University of South Florida Morsani College of Medicine in Tampa in 2016. Following her graduation, she completed her residency in diagnostic radiology at UF Health Shands Hospital in Gainesville, Florida, and went on to pursue a fellowship in breast/body imaging at the prestigious Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center in New York, which she completed in 2022.

Dr. Hanna is board-certified in diagnostic radiology and possesses specialized training in various imaging modalities, including X-rays, computed tomography (CT), and magnetic resonance imaging (MRI). She has performed thousands of ultrasound-guided, stereotactically-guided, and MRI-guided breast biopsies. She is an active member of several professional organizations, including the Radiological Society of North America, the American College of Radiology, and the Society of Breast Imaging. Dr. Hanna credits her success to the strong work ethic instilled in her by her parents, which continues to guide her commitment to excellence in patient care.
