

Dr. Eldo E. Frezza, MD, MBA, FACS, Named Assistant Dean of Research at California Northstate University COM

Renowned Surgeon and Medical Educator Brings Over 30 Years of Clinical and Academic Excellence to Elk Grove

New York City, New York Jun 9, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - California Northstate University College of Medicine proudly announces the appointment of Dr. Eldo E. Frezza, MD, MBA, FACS, as Assistant Dean of Research, Professor of Surgery, and Surgery Clerkship Director. With a distinguished career spanning over three decades, Dr. Frezza brings a wealth of experience in surgical practice, medical education, and clinical research to the institution.

Dr. Frezza earned his medical degree from the University of Padua School of Medicine in Italy and completed fellowships in colorectal surgery at St. Mark's Hospital in London and advanced laparoscopic liver surgery and transplantation at the University of Pittsburgh. He further enhanced his expertise with an MBA in Health Organization Management from Texas Tech University's Rawls School of Business. His diverse educational background underscores his commitment to integrating clinical excellence with healthcare management.

Throughout his career, Dr. Frezza has demonstrated a passion for advancing surgical techniques and improving patient outcomes. He has authored over 200 peer-reviewed publications, contributed to more than 20 book chapters, and written 15 books on healthcare topics. His research interests include hormonal control of Type 2 diabetes, radiofrequency ablation treatment for liver cancer, healthcare economics, and the impact of obesity on colorectal cancer. His prolific contributions have significantly influenced modern surgical practices and healthcare policies.

In his new role at California Northstate University, Dr. Frezza will oversee research initiatives, mentor medical students, and lead the surgical clerkship program. His leadership is expected to foster a culture of inquiry and innovation, preparing the next generation of physicians to meet the evolving challenges of the healthcare landscape. His dedication to underserved populations and commitment to compassionate care align with the university's mission to improve community health outcomes.

Dr. Frezza's appointment marks a significant milestone for California Northstate University College of Medicine as it continues to strengthen its academic and research programs. His extensive experience and visionary leadership are anticipated to enhance the institution's reputation as a hub for medical excellence and innovation.
