EXPECTED STAKE DILUTION

Gurgaon, Haryana Jun 19, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - In a game-changing move for Indian startups and early-stage businesses, FundTQ, a modern investment banking advisory firm, is revolutionising how founders approach fundraising. With its newly launched business valuation software and industry-specific pitch deck templates, FundTQ offers a 360° solution—making it easier than ever for entrepreneurs to understand their valuation, pitch with confidence, and connect with the right investors.

More Than Just Investment Banking

FundTQ isn't your traditional investment advisory firm. While it continues to provide end-to-end fundraising and M&A advisory services, the company is now empowering founders with self-serve tools designed to simplify the most complex parts of the startup journey.

With India's startup ecosystem booming but also increasingly competitive, FundTQ steps in as a strategic partner—offering tools that bridge the gap between investor expectations and founder readiness.

Startup Valuation, Simplified

FundTQ's Free Business Valuation Software helps startup founders calculate their company's value in minutes—no financial background or expensive consultants required. Built with Indian market dynamics in mind, this user-friendly tool provides data-driven insights tailored for pre-seed to Series A-stage startups.

- Know your worth before talking to investors
- Perfect for investor meetings, term sheet discussions, and strategic planning
- Instant downloadable reports—great for including in pitch decks

Investor-Ready Pitch Deck Templates

Crafting the perfect pitch deck is no longer a struggle. FundTQ offers professionally designed, industry specific pitch deck templates tailored for sectors like SaaS, D2C, healthcare, fintech, and more. These templates are curated by investment bankers and designers to help founders:

- Tell their startup story clearly and persuasively
- Highlight traction, vision, and financials the right way
- Impress VCs, angels, and institutional investors

Why FundTQ Is Different?

“Most founders are brilliant at building products—but not all are equipped to navigate the complex fundraising landscape,” says Aanchal Malhotra, Founder of FundTQ. “We created these tools so they can walk into investor meetings informed, prepared, and confident.”

With a focus on accessibility, transparency, and founder empowerment, FundTQ is reshaping how Indian startups raise capital.
