

Harlem's Hidden Gem: Kanu Bar Brings Culture, Cocktails & Community to Broadway

Afro-Caribbean restaurant Kanu Bar opens in Harlem, offering cocktails, brunch, and culture in an upscale, welcoming space.

New York, United States Jun 20, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Kanu Bar, located at 3628 Broadway in Harlem, NY 10031, is the city's newest destination for elevated food, cocktails, and cultural connection.

Founded by entrepreneurs Chakeimah Davis, a New York native, and Moses Suso, an African native, Kanu Bar blends Afro-Caribbean flavor with modern Harlem energy.

More than a restaurant, Kanu Bar is a vibrant cultural space that brings people together through music, flavor, and community. Guests enjoy a menu filled with rich, bold dishes and signature cocktails, all served in a stylish and welcoming atmosphere. From weekend brunches to curated events, the bar is quickly gaining a reputation as Harlem's go-to destination for an unforgettable experience.

Chakeimah and Moses launched Kanu Bar with a vision to celebrate their heritage and provide the Harlem neighborhood with something unique — a space that feels both authentic and elevated.

Now open for private events, dinner service, and social gatherings, Kanu Bar invites locals and visitors alike to enjoy good vibes, great food, and genuine hospitality.
