

Huprich Law Firm PC Relocates to Ontario to Expand Employment Law Services Across the Inland Empire

The Inland Empire-based firm remains fully committed to Rancho Cucamonga while broadening access to legal representation for workers in Ontario, Chino, Claremont, La Verne, Montclair, Pomona, San Dimas, Upland, Covina, Fontana, and Glendora.

Ontario, California Jun 5, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Huprich Law Firm PC, a leading Southern California law practice focused exclusively on employment law and employee rights, is pleased to announce its recent relocation from Rancho Cucamonga to Ontario, California. This strategic move is designed to enhance the firm's ability to serve workers across the Inland Empire while continuing its unwavering support for the Rancho Cucamonga community.

Although the office location has changed, the mission remains steadfast: defending the rights of employees who face unlawful workplace treatment. With its new home base in Ontario, Huprich Law Firm PC is well-positioned to offer legal services to individuals throughout Ontario, Chino, Claremont, La Verne, Montclair, Pomona, Rancho Cucamonga, San Dimas, Upland, Charter Oak, Covina, Fontana, and Glendora.

"Relocating to Ontario is about access, reach, and responsiveness," said Joseph Huprich, Founder and Principal Attorney of Huprich Law Firm PC. "We continue to proudly serve Rancho Cucamonga, and now with greater ease, we're extending that same high level of service to even more communities across the Inland Empire."

Huprich Law Firm PC provides aggressive, compassionate legal advocacy for employees facing difficult workplace issues. The firm handles a wide array of employment law cases, including:

- Wrongful Termination
- Discrimination based on age, race, gender, disability, religion, and more
- Sexual Harassment and Hostile Work Environment
- Retaliation and Whistleblower Protection
- Wage and Hour Violations, including unpaid wages, overtime, and missed breaks
- Severance Agreement Reviews and Negotiations

The firm has represented workers in both the private and public sectors, from hourly employees to managers and executives. Every case is personally handled by Attorney Joseph Huprich, who brings 26 years of experience and a results-driven approach rooted in integrity and individualized care.

A New Location, the Same Core Values

Though the firm now operates out of Ontario, Huprich Law Firm PC has not left Rancho Cucamonga behind. The new location expands geographic access without compromising existing relationships.

“We built our reputation in Rancho Cucamonga, and that commitment remains strong,” Huprich added. “We now serve our Rancho Cucamonga clients from Ontario with the same drive, focus, and determination we’ve always offered.”

The Ontario office’s central location and proximity to major freeways makes it easier for clients from surrounding communities to seek legal counsel and attend consultations without unnecessary delay or inconvenience.

Empowering Employees Through Advocacy and Education

In addition to courtroom advocacy, Huprich Law Firm PC is passionate about community education. The firm will continue to engage in outreach efforts to help workers understand their rights—particularly those vulnerable to exploitation, such as non-unionized workers, immigrants, older employees, and individuals in low-wage industries.

Workers in the Inland Empire who believe they’ve been wrongfully terminated, harassed, discriminated against, or denied wages are encouraged to reach out to the firm for a confidential, no-obligation consultation. Early intervention can make a significant difference in protecting employment rights and securing just outcomes.

About Huprich Law Firm PC

Huprich Law Firm PC is a Southern California law firm based in Ontario and focused solely on employment law. Founded by attorney Joseph Huprich, the firm provides legal representation for employees in cases involving wrongful termination, discrimination, sexual harassment, retaliation, and wage and hour violations. Known for strategic, client-focused advocacy, Huprich Law Firm PC serves clients throughout the Inland Empire and across the greater Los Angeles area.

Media Contact

Huprich Law Firm PC

@huprichlaw.com

909-766-2226

980 W. 6th Street Suite 320

Source : Huprich Law Firm PC

See on IssueWire