

Krista Buchanan: Advancing Wound Care with Vision and Passion

From Longview Regional Medical Center to WoundVision™, Leading Innovation in Wound Imaging and Patient Outcomes

New York City, New York Jun 20, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Krista Buchanan, a Certified Wound Ostomy Nurse (CWON) and Certified Med Surg Nurse (CMSRN), is making significant strides in the field of wound care and management. With a robust educational and experiential background, Krista's passion for patient care drives her dedication to improving outcomes for patients with wounds and ostomies.

Krista graduated in 2018 with a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from the University of Colorado Colorado Springs. She furthered her expertise by earning her Wound Ostomy Certification from the prestigious Nell Hodgson Woodruff School of Nursing at Emory University. Since 2021, she has been applying her specialized knowledge as a CWON at Longview Regional Medical Center, where she has become a trusted resource for patients and healthcare providers alike.

In her role at Longview Regional Medical Center, Krista has demonstrated exceptional skill and compassion in managing complex wound care cases. Her commitment to patient-centered care has not only improved individual patient outcomes but has also contributed to the overall standard of care within her facility.

As of April 2025, Krista has expanded her professional horizons by taking on the role of Clinical Solutions Specialist with WoundVision™, a recognized leader in advanced wound imaging technology. WoundVision™ is the industry's first and only full-service provider of wound imaging and documentation solutions, designed to standardize wound assessment, reduce documentation errors, streamline EMR workflows, and enhance patient experiences across all healthcare settings.

WoundVision™ has been at the forefront of innovation in wound care, and Krista's involvement will further enhance their mission to provide cutting-edge solutions that improve patient outcomes. With her clinical expertise and dedication, Krista Buchanan is poised to make a meaningful impact in the field of wound management and care.
