

Leslie McCarroll Joins the "Mr. Jack" Film Project to Drive Strategic Marketing Initiatives

Reno, Nevada Jun 16, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - The producers of the upcoming film "Mr. Jack" are thrilled to announce that Leslie McCarroll has joined their team to lead marketing efforts. Leslie is renowned for her innovative spirit and has an impressive background in marketing, brand development, and media. Her role will also include assisting with the film's ongoing fundraising.

A proud native of Reno, Nevada, Leslie is a University of Nevada, Reno graduate with a Bachelor of Arts in Theater and minors in Art and French. She is the founder and owner of four successful magazines—"Aphrodite," "Bliss Babe Magazine," "Bliss Babies Magazine," and "Bliss Life Magazine"—along with the Bliss Media & Publishing Marketing Agency. Leslie has built her media empire from the ground up without external funding, showcasing her dedication and entrepreneurial spirit.

Her dynamic approach has allowed her to collaborate with a diverse array of clients, from local businesses to global giants like ULTA, Sephora, and Audi. Leslie's impressive media career includes interviews with notable figures such as First Lady Jill Biden and musicians like Scott Stapp and Josh Todd.

In her recent endeavors, Leslie represented Avail Films at the Cannes Film Festival as a Sales Agent for the film "Sarogeto." This transformative experience reignited her passion for storytelling through film and media, further solidifying her creative legacy.

Leslie's addition to the "Mr. Jack" team marks an exciting phase in the film's development. Her expertise in marketing and fundraising will be instrumental in bringing this remarkable story to audiences worldwide. Leslie's passion for storytelling and her ability to forge strong connections in the industry are expected to propel "Mr. Jack" to new heights.
