Maite Muñoz: Leading Realtor Associate and Community Advocate in Miami's Real Estate Market

New York City, New York Jun 11, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Maite Muñoz, a distinguished Realtor Associate with Prime One Realty, LLC, is making waves in one of the most dynamic real estate markets in the United States. With an impressive two-decade career in real estate, Maite possesses extensive knowledge of Miami's diverse neighborhoods, enabling her to expertly navigate both residential and commercial transactions. Her dedication to providing clients with an exceptional experience throughout each stage of the buying or selling process sets her apart in a competitive industry.

Beyond her real estate expertise, Maite brings a wealth of experience from the international business sector. Having previously served as a Sales Director and Cuba Country Manager within the telecommunications industry, she has honed vital skills in leadership, negotiation, and communication. These abilities are seamlessly integrated into her real estate practice, allowing her to effectively advocate for her clients' interests. A graduate of Florida International University, Maite is fully bilingual in English and Spanish, enhancing her ability to connect with a diverse clientele.

In addition to her real estate endeavors, Maite is the founder and President of Mi Isla Consulting, LLC. This entrepreneurial initiative reflects her commitment to addressing the needs of the South Florida community and beyond. Known for her strategic mindset and results-driven approach, she empowers her clients to make informed and confident decisions in a highly competitive market.

Maite Muñoz continues to be a prominent figure in Miami's real estate landscape, driven by her passion for helping clients achieve their goals. Her unique combination of extensive experience, strong business acumen, and community involvement positions her as a trusted advisor for anyone looking to navigate the complexities of the real estate market in Miami.
