

Michael Paul Wassermann, MD: A Dual Specialist in Anesthesiology and Emergency Medicine Joins Saint Luke's Health System

Expertise in Critical Care Medicine Enhances Patient Care Across Multiple Facilities

New York City, New York Jun 11, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Saint Luke's Health System is proud to announce the addition of Michael Paul Wassermann, MD, to its esteemed medical team. Dr. Wassermann, a dual specialist in anesthesiology and emergency medicine, brings a wealth of knowledge and expertise to Saint Luke's hospitals, enhancing the level of critical care available to patients across the system.

Dr. Wassermann completed his fellowship in Anesthesiology and Critical Care Medicine at the Washington University/B-JH/SLCH Consortium in Saint Louis, MO, where he honed his skills in managing complex cases that require both anesthetic and critical care expertise. His commitment to excellence was established during his medical education at the University of Arizona College of Medicine – Phoenix, where he developed a strong foundation in patient-centered care.

Following his medical school training, Dr. Wassermann completed his residency in Emergency Medicine at the University of New Mexico School of Medicine Program in Albuquerque, NM. This rigorous training provided him with the ability to make quick, life-saving decisions in high-pressure situations, a skill that is invaluable in both emergency and anesthetic settings.

Currently, Dr. Wassermann is affiliated with several Saint Luke's facilities, including Saint Luke's South Hospital, Saint Luke's East Hospital, Hedrick Medical Center, Saint Luke's North Hospital–Smithville, Saint Luke's North Hospital–Barry Road, and Saint Luke's Hospital of Kansas City. His diverse experience across these hospitals allows him to contribute significantly to the overall healthcare mission of Saint Luke's Health System, ensuring that patients receive comprehensive and coordinated care.
