

PR1ME Z Recognized by Q Asia Magazine

2025's Most Promising Health & Wellness Direct Selling Company

Makati City, Metropolitan Manila Area Jun 12, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - PR1ME Z, a rising star in the health and wellness industry, has been officially recognized by Q Asia Magazine as the “Most Promising Health and Wellness Direct Selling Company of 2025.”

The awarding ceremony took place at the Diamond Hotel Manila on April 30, 2025, bringing together executives, entrepreneurs, and key figures from various industries to recognize achievements in business and innovation.

As a testament to its growing influence and consumer trust, PR1ME Z was also featured on the cover of Q Asia Magazine's special issue, highlighting the brand's innovative approach to health, its rapid growth in the direct selling market, and its commitment to product quality and customer satisfaction.

In addition to the top accolade, PR1ME Z received the prestigious Seal of Quality Excellence — a distinction awarded to brands that uphold high standards in product development, ethical practices, and overall brand integrity.

PR1ME Z has gained strong momentum over the past year, particularly in the wellness and detoxification space, with its flagship products growing increasingly popular among health-conscious consumers and wellness advocates alike.

“This recognition from Q Asia is a major milestone for us. It affirms our dedication to improving lives through high-quality, effective wellness products and a community-driven business model,” said a representative from PR1ME Z.

Industry observers note that this achievement sets PR1ME Z apart in the competitive direct selling landscape, positioning the company as a rising brand in the years ahead.

With national recognition now under its belt, PR1ME Z is poised to reach new heights as it continues to expand, innovate, and transform lives — one wellness journey at a time.
