Revolutionizing Healthcare with Comfort, Convenience, and Compassion

New York City, New York Jun 19, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Ricky Sayegh, MD, a board-certified physician specializing in Interventional Pain Management, internal medicine, and emergency critical care, is excited to announce personalized pain management, wellness, and general medical services for patients in Bergen County, New Jersey, and surrounding areas. With a commitment to delivering top-quality healthcare in an innovative office setting, Dr. Sayegh aims to transform the way patients experience medical care, making it simple, convenient, and accessible.

With over two decades of medical expertise, Dr. Sayegh has a rich educational background that sets him apart in the field of interventional pain management and internal medicine. He received his Medical Degree in 2000, followed by further residency training at New York University (NYU)/Mount Sinai Medical Center in 2004. To enhance his capabilities in healthcare leadership, Dr. Sayegh earned a Physician Executive MBA in Healthcare Administration from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, in 2015. This diverse educational foundation empowers him to provide exceptional clinical care while effectively managing healthcare practices.

Dr. Sayegh's approach to medicine is rooted in personalized, patient-centered care. He specializes in treating pain in the neck, lower back, and joints. He is well-versed in wellness, preventive health, and comprehensive medical evaluations, ensuring that each treatment plan is tailored to individual health needs. Dr. Sayegh eliminates the barriers of traditional healthcare visits, allowing patients to receive the attention and treatment they deserve in a familiar and stress-free environment.

In addition to his clinical practice, Dr. Sayegh is an active member of numerous prestigious professional organizations, including the American Academy of Medical Administrators; the American College of Emergency Physicians, New Jersey Chapter; the American College of Physicians, New York Chapter; the American College of Cardiology, New York State Chapter; the American Academy of Disability Evaluating Physicians; the American College of Chest Physicians; and the American College of Emergency Physicians, New York Chapter. His dedication to the field is further evidenced by his certification as a Medical Examiner and his fellowship with the American College of Physicians (FACP). These affiliations reflect his ongoing commitment to maintaining high standards in medical practice and advocating for patient welfare.

When asked about the secret to his success, Dr. Sayegh passionately states, "I love humanity. I treat each patient the way I would want to be treated." This philosophy drives his practice and reinforces his belief that healthcare should be both compassionate and competent.
