

Ryan Shillingburg, DO, Strengthens Emergency Care at UT Medical Center

Experienced Emergency Medicine Physician Enhances Patient Services in Knoxville

New York City, New York Jun 9, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - The University of Tennessee Medical Center is proud to announce the addition of Dr. Ryan Shillingburg, DO, to its Emergency Department team. Dr. Shillingburg brings over five years of diverse experience in medicine, further enriching the hospital's commitment to providing exceptional patient care.

Dr. Shillingburg earned his Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree in 2020 from Rocky Vista University in Denver, Colorado. He attended both residency and fellowship at the University of Tennessee, making him double board certified in Family and Emergency Medicine. He joined teamhealth providers as an emergency physician, and was recently announced as the Lifestar assistant director where he enjoys teaching through hands-on experiences and traditional didactics.

In his role at UT Medical Center, Dr. Shillingburg focuses on immediate decision-making and actions necessary to prevent death or further disability in emergencies. His expertise encompasses the evaluation, care, stabilization, and disposition of a diverse patient population experiencing acute illnesses and injuries. Because of his additional background in Family Medicine, he never misses an opportunity to incorporate preventative strategies and continuity of care.

Patients can access Dr. Shillingburg's services at the UT Medical Center Emergency Department, located at 1924 Alcoa Highway, Knoxville, TN 37920. Dr. Shillingburg's addition to the UT Medical Center team underscores the institution's ongoing dedication to enhancing emergency medical care for the Knoxville community. His experience and commitment to patient well-being make him a valuable asset to the hospital's emergency services.
