Renowned minimally invasive specialist brings over three decades of surgical excellence to Winterhaven, FL

New York City, New York Jun 22, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Scott O. Johnson, MD, FACS, is a distinguished general surgeon at Advent Health Bond Clinic with over three decades of surgical expertise. His impressive career is marked by a commitment to advancing surgical practices, particularly in minimally invasive and robotic-assisted techniques. Dr. Johnson's journey in medicine began at The Ohio State University College of Medicine, where he earned his medical degree before completing his surgical residency at Mount Carmel Health System.

Board-certified by the American Board of Surgery and recognized as a Fellow of the American College of Surgeons, Dr. Johnson exemplifies surgical excellence and a dedication to lifelong learning. His proficiency spans a wide range of surgical procedures, including those addressing gallbladder issues, hernias, breast and colon cancer, along with complex surgeries involving the esophagus, stomach, small intestine, thyroid, and parathyroid.

At Advent Health Bond Clinic, Dr. Johnson is a pivotal figure in enhancing patient care through innovative surgical methods. He is actively involved in the hospital's initiatives to incorporate robotic-assisted surgeries, which significantly improve recovery times and overall patient outcomes. Colleagues and patients alike commend him for his exceptional communication skills and empathetic approach, which foster a strong doctor-patient relationship.

In addition to his clinical work, Dr. Johnson has held leadership positions, including Chair of the Department of Surgery, where he has influenced surgical standards and practices within the institution. His commitment to high-quality patient care and surgical innovation continues to make him a respected leader in the Winter Haven medical community.
