

Shanti Devi's Mission Against Addiction: Transforming Lives Through Compassionate Rehabilitation

Shanti Devi's Groundbreaking Work in Addiction Recovery

Delhi, India Jun 21, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Shanti Devi, a noted social activist and grassroots leader, is gaining national recognition for her groundbreaking work in addiction recovery. Her efforts, particularly through the Nasha Mukti Kendra in Hapur, have restored hope and dignity to individuals and families devastated by substance abuse. With a deep belief in second chances, Shanti Devi's centers are not only healing patients—they're rebuilding communities.

Urban Recovery Support Expands with Nasha Mukti Kendra in Nangloi

In response to the escalating demand for urban addiction care, Shanti Devi launched the Nasha Mukti Kendra in Nangloi—a fully equipped de-addiction center serving the bustling neighborhoods of Delhi. Here, patients are offered medical detoxification, individual counseling, group therapy, and family support in a structured and compassionate setting.

The center focuses on breaking the stigma surrounding addiction, with many success stories proving that a holistic and personalized approach can lead to full recovery. Nangloi's team of medical professionals, therapists, and recovery coaches work hand-in-hand to guide patients through every stage of healing.

Community Engagement & Awareness at the Heart of the Movement

What distinguishes Shanti Devi's work is her strong commitment to public awareness and early intervention. Through regular outreach programs, educational workshops, and school seminars, she and her team are working proactively to prevent addiction before it begins.

These campaigns have helped shift the public conversation—from silence and shame to openness and support. Families are now more willing to seek help early, and many are becoming advocates for recovery in their own communities.

Nasha Mukti Kendra in Narela: Accessibility Meets Excellence

The latest addition to Shanti Devi's recovery network is the Nasha Mukti Kendra in Narela, which prioritizes affordable, high-quality care for underserved populations. The Narela center is fully operational with trained staff, 24/7 medical support, psychological counseling, and post-treatment programs that promote long-term sobriety and independence.

With this new center, Shanti Devi is ensuring that no one is denied help due to lack of resources. Her inclusive approach is setting a new standard for rehabilitation services in India.
