Miami's newest dinner-only soul food restaurant offers bold flavors and convenient pickup and delivery from 6 PM to midnight.

Miami, Florida Jun 9, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Miami's food scene is about to get a soulful upgrade. Soulful Snobb, a bold new dinner-only soul food restaurant, is launching its highly anticipated grand opening on Thursday, June 12, offering an unforgettable culinary experience from 6 PM to midnight, Wednesday through Sunday.

Soulful Snobb isn't just another restaurant—it's a movement bringing the heart and soul of Southern comfort food to Miami's vibrant late-night dining culture. Founded by seasoned chef and entrepreneur Delneatria Paige Whitehead, the brand combines time-honored family recipes with the energy and flair of Miami's after-dark scene, delivering bold flavors and authentic experiences without the wait or formality of traditional dining.

"We're redefining what soul food means after dark," says Whitehead. "Our mission is simple: no ego, just flavor. We serve real, hearty plates that fill you up and lift your spirit—whether you're celebrating, relaxing, or just craving something delicious late into the night."

Soulful Snobb's menu is already winning hearts with crowd favorites like salmon bites, Million $$ Mac (a decadent macaroni and cheese dish that's become a signature), perfectly seasoned lamb chops, slow-cooked southern-style collard greens, and warm, comforting peach cobbler.

Available exclusively for pickup and delivery, Soulful Snobb fits seamlessly into Miami's busy lifestyle, offering restaurant-quality soul food wherever you are. The brand also caters intimate and larger events up to 100 guests, bringing soul food with standards to celebrations and corporate gatherings alike.

Looking ahead, Soulful Snobb plans to launch its own seasoning line and release a cookbook, Restaurant Meals at Home, designed to share the soulful magic in kitchens everywhere.
