

The Funeral Fix Revolutionises Funeral Celebrant Training Across Australia and Beyond

Sydney, New South Wales Jun 12, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - The Funeral Fix proudly announces a modern, comprehensive transformation in Funeral Celebrant Courses. Founded in April 2021 by seasoned celebrants and planners Oliver Thomson and Yasemin “Yaz” Trollope, the platform fills a critical gap in celebrant training—providing a robust online curriculum, in-person workshops, scholarships, and coaching programs that champion contemporary, inclusive end-of-life ceremonies .

“Death deserves rituals that reflect life—modern, personal, meaningful,” says Yaz Trollope, digital marketing expert turned Funeral Celebrant. “Our students lead funerals where people laugh, cry and walk away uplifted”. Oliver adds, “We’ve guided hundreds of ceremonies; now we guide celebrants”.

Flagship Training Offerings

8-Module Online Course: Dive deep into ceremony writing, grief support, marketing strategies, self-care practices, and business development — includes templates, community access, and a coaching call with a founder.

In-Person Workshops: Full-day, hands-on sessions in Sydney and the Gold Coast designed for real-time learning, public speaking, and feedback.

1:1 Coaching: A six-month tailored mentorship (6×60 min Zoom sessions and optional funeral ride-alongs in QLD/NSW) with Yaz and Oliver — ideal for deep practice and client acquisition.

Additional Learning Paths

Single-Module Courses: Focused topics like funeral industry fundamentals, writing, grief handling, and business growth — modules available individually from AUD $375 each.

Playbook + Free Journaling Toolkit: A mini guide with core strategies, and an introspective journaling resource to ease beginners into the death-care profession.

Access & Community

Graduates receive lifetime access to course materials, community forums, and continuous updates. Certification is granted upon completing assessments—no external accreditation required, yet widely respected by Funeral Directors.

Scholarship Initiative

The Funeral Fix Scholarships (full and half-tuition) offer committed individuals worldwide the opportunity to break into the celebrant space, with two full and two half scholarships available each intake.

Testimonials

“The Funeral Fix gave me the confidence to deliver beautifully uplifting ceremonies” — Victoria Eustace.
“Within a week of graduating, I delivered my first ceremony thanks to this course” — Georgia Fletcher.
