FROM: TROY & LIGHTNING LYRICS

Scottsdale, Arizona Jun 13, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - June 10th. When was the last time you gave someone a gift they truly never saw coming? A new Arizona-based startup is changing the way we think about gifting, branding, and storytelling—by creating full-fledged custom songs, made-to-order in under 36 hours. Lightning Lyrics, founded by a small team with backgrounds in music production and marketing, is delivering emotionally charged, professionally produced, and highly personal songs for individuals and businesses nationwide.

Creative Director Gavin Washburn puts it best: “Nothing touches people quite like music. We’ve found a way to move people — and watching their reactions never gets old.” Whether it’s a love song for your partner, an anthem for your dad, or a jingle that makes your brand unforgettable—Lightning Lyrics is proving you don’t need a record deal to feel like the main character in your own soundtrack. Creative

We’re offering something no one else can: a finished, stereo-quality song created specifically for you or someone you care about, with a story that only you could tell,” says Troy Bohlke, its Founder

“Music speaks much louder than words.”

Lightning Lyrics offers:

- Custom lyrics + professional production in any genre (pop, country, indie, R&B, rock, etc.)
- Delivery within 24–36 hours of consultation
- A visual single cover and options
- Emotional impact that lasts long after the last verse

The founders are upfront about one thing: they’re not trying to hide the fact that this isn’t a 6-month Nashville studio project. Instead, they’re proudly flipping the model. “This is the next wave of music as service. You don’t need to spend $10K and wait 3 months for a heartfelt, well-produced original. What we create is music that sounds like a million bucks—and it actually means something special to those who receive it.” And the results speak for themselves with over 30 heartfelt testimonials, Lightning Lyrics has delivered songs for Father’s Day, weddings, retirements, podcasts, small business launches, and even custom theme songs for family reunions. Each song is as unique as the person you are making the song for, and the mission remains the same: To Create Connection, Joy, and Memory Through Music—faster and more meaningfully than ever before. “We believe that kind of gift is Priceless” continues Bohlke
