

The Manna Chronicle Issue #2!

Join The Quest, To Save Two World!

Manchester, United Kingdom Jun 19, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - The Manna Chronicles, published by Electric Lips Comics, is an electrifying saga that spans light years between worlds, blending stunning art with a gripping narrative.

It all began with Issue #1, "Through the Dark Portal," where our heroes, led by a fierce Elven Warrior, were thrown through a mystical gateway, embarking on a quest to save two worlds. Created by the talented team of Antoine Sandoval (art), Ian Fults (writer/creator), and colors of Marie Kerns and Tiffany Lei, this series introduces a diverse cast, unlocking the enigmatic power of "MANNA."

Now, in Issue #2, "Learning to Tap," the stakes rise as our Elven Warrior learns how to harness this power amidst unforeseen challenges. The artwork, vibrant, dynamic, and full of life, is just a glimpse of the adventure awaiting.

But bringing this story to print, shipping rewards, and expanding into future arcs requires your support. That's where you come in!

WHY BACK US?

An Epic Tale: The Manna Chronicles weaves a unique story of survival and discovery across two worlds, with Issue #1 laying the foundation and Issue #2 amplifying the action.

Talented Team: Featuring Antoine Sandoval's breathtaking art, along with the talents of BEEZZZ Studio, Ian Fults' compelling writing, and Marie Kerns' colors, this is a labor of love from Electric Lips Comics.

Your Impact: Your pledge funds the printing of Issue #2, raises funds for the third issue, and paves the way to continue ARC, 1 ensuring this quest reaches fans globally.
