

Upcoming TV Producer in Atlanta

Lawrenceville, Georgia Jun 6, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Tony Hunter From Stage to Screen — Single Dad, Former Recording Artist, and CEO of MinolaTV Is Redefining the Game in Television

From the world of music to the frontlines of television, Tony Hunter is a multi-talented powerhouse who's writing his own legacy—one project at a time. A former professional recording artist and now a thriving TV producer and CEO, Tony is the visionary behind the hit unscripted series Making It In The ATL and the founder of the rapidly growing streaming platform MinolaTV.

But his greatest role? Single dad to three amazing kids—balancing the grind of entrepreneurship with the heart of a full-time father.

Tony made his leap into the TV and film industry with the launch of MinolaTV, a network created to amplify real voices and authentic stories. The name is a tribute to his late grandmother, Minola Hunter, whose strength, love, and legacy continue to inspire his every move.

“I’m building more than content—I’m building a platform that reflects purpose, power, and the kind of legacy my kids can be proud of,” says Hunter.

With Season 1 of Making It In The ATL already making an impact, Tony is now gearing up to film Season 2, promising even more raw, real, and unapologetic storytelling from Atlanta’s dream chasers and culture shapers. Simultaneously, he’s preparing to wrap production on his next major release—Chiro Champions of Atlanta—a long-anticipated docu-series that dives into the lives of top chiropractors transforming wellness and community across the city.

Tony Hunter is more than a creator—he’s a culture mover. A boss. A father. A leader building his own lane and inviting others to rise with him.

Watch his work on MinolaTV, streaming now on Roku, Firestick, AppleTV, iOS, and Android.
