

Virginia Louise Brown Owens, AGPCNP-BC, Elevates Patient Care as Premier Nurse Practitioner in Roseville, CA

Delivering Compassionate, Expert Adult-Gerontology Care to Improve Health Outcomes Across the Community

New York City, New York Jun 25, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Pulmonary Medicine Associates and Roseville Family Health Care proudly highlight the outstanding contributions of Virginia Louise Brown Owens, AGPCNP-BC, a compassionate and highly skilled Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner delivering excellence across Roseville and Marysville.

Board-certified in adult-gerontology primary care and critical care, Virginia Owens brings over 30 years of nursing experience to her current role. Her clinical background includes extensive time as an ICU Registered Nurse and critical care transport nurse, where she built deep expertise in managing acute and chronic conditions. Her experience has made her a trusted provider known for clinical precision and genuine compassion.

Patients consistently praise Virginia for her ability to explain conditions clearly, offer thoughtful answers to questions, and provide exceptional follow-up care. Her reputation for being well-trained, devoted, and sincere has led to a loyal and growing patient base. With locations in both Roseville and Marysville, she is currently accepting new patients and works with a broad range of insurance providers.

Virginia Owens is especially passionate about holistic, patient-centered care tailored to adult and geriatric populations. Her scope of services includes preventive screenings, wellness visits, chronic disease management, and patient education. She plays a central role in formulating care plans, coordinating with interdisciplinary teams, and improving outcomes across the continuum of care.

In addition to her clinical work, Virginia serves as an advocate and mentor, guiding both patients and colleagues. Her experience across various healthcare systems and proficiency with electronic medical records ensure coordinated, high-quality care. Owens continues to make a lasting impact on the Roseville community as a dependable and highly regarded healthcare provider.
