

Virtual Valor to Release Terrance Bell's "Party Outside"

The Song of the Summer Honoring His Father's Legacy and Celebrating Substance Abuse Survivors; A Percentage of Proceeds Will Benefit Local Substance Abuse Organizations

Houston, Texas Jun 18, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Virtual Valor is excited to announce the release of Terrance Bell's new single "Party Outside" on June 20, 2025, as part of a multi-product celebration. This initiative honors his father's legacy while advocating for victims of substance abuse, inspired by his experiences with a mother who battled addiction. The song carries a dual meaning, celebrating both joy and resilience.

This upbeat song of the summer invites listeners to dance, serving as a tribute to the joyful memories of Terrance's father, who passed away when he was a child. "I wanted to create a song we can dance to. My dad was always the life of the party, and those moments shaped my childhood," he shares. The inspiration behind "Party Outside" is personal, reflecting on cherished memories and encouraging others to celebrate their loved ones and life's joys.

Terrance's mother, a recovering drug abuser who has been sober for 15 years, inspires him to support victims of substance abuse. "I've seen firsthand how engaging in joyful activities can uplift those in recovery. With 'Party Outside,' I want to invite individuals to dance, sing, and rediscover the joy life offers."

"Party Outside" is also a line dance anthem fostering connection through music and movement. Terrance plans to donate a percentage of proceeds from "Party Outside" and all upcoming products, including his Nifty Legacy Zodiac swimwear line, to substance abuse centers.

Terrance has taken over management of Nifty Legacy Group, launching the Legacy Zodiac Collection, featuring designs for various zodiac signs, starting with Pisces Legacy and Virgo Legacy, set for release in July 2025.

He also aims to build grassroots support through pop-up performances at local venues. "I want to show my support by teaching line dancing at substance abuse centers, hosting competitive dance events, and giving away 'Party Outside' t-shirts. Everyone deserves a second chance, and I am committed to uplifting those around me through my music and gifts," says Terrance Bell.

To maximize engagement, a music video will be released on July 18, 2025, showcasing vibrant celebrations in Los Angeles, Miami, and his hometown of Houston, TX.
