Amid rising national urgency for critical minerals and rare earth security, World Earth Minerals joins elite policymakers, defense strategists, and industry leaders at the 10th Washington Energy Summit, via dplnk Consultancy's strategic alliances.

Washington, D.C, District of Columbia Jun 4, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Amid growing national urgency for securing critical minerals and rare earth elements, World Earth Minerals (WEM) is proud to attend the 10th Washington Energy Summit, engaging with key policymakers, industry stakeholders, and national security leaders to strengthen America's energy independence.

Representing WEM at this exclusive Summit are:

- Mr. Irvin Johnson, Chief Executive Officer (CEO)
- Ms. Beatriz Garcia, Chief Operating Officer (COO)
- Ms. Melissa Bautz, Chief Geologist
- Mr. Jim Healey, Vice President of Mining

Their presence, facilitated through the strategic, and highly respected, industry affiliations of dplnk Ltd. Liability Company Founder Donna L. Quesinberry, is underscored by gratitude to same and the commitment to supply domestic mineral production, fortifying U.S. supply chains, and aligning with Presidential Executive Orders supporting national mineral security.

A Call to Action for America's Future

With active mining operations in Wyoming, WEM intends to play a decisive role in achieving the nation's access to rare earth elements and critical minerals, including:

- Antimony, Bismuth, Coal, Gallium, Germanium, Gold, Indium, Molybdenum, Tellurium, Tungsten, etc.; using
- Advanced AI-driven processing and blockchain-enabled supply chain transparency; and
- Hydrogen-based refining and closed-loop sustainability initiatives.

As America takes bold steps toward energy dominance, WEM stands ready to partner with investors, technology firms, defense agencies, and policymakers to fortify America's independence from foreign-controlled resources.
