Yoga Soul Launches Premium Bolster Yoga Cushion Collection to Support Mindful Living

Australian-based wellness brand introduces sustainably crafted bolster yoga cushions, blending comfort, style, and function for every level of yoga and meditation practice.

Sydney, New South Wales Jun 23, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Yoga Soul, a trusted name in high-quality yoga and meditation accessories, is proud to unveil its latest collection of bolster yoga cushions, designed to enhance restorative yoga, meditation, and breathwork practices. Available now at www.yogasoul.com.au, the collection reflects Yoga Soul's commitment to sustainability, mindful design, and inclusive support for yogis of all levels.

The new bolster range includes round, oval, and pranayama cushions—each crafted using ecoconscious materials such as organic kapok filling and durable cotton covers. Built with intention and care, these cushions provide optimal alignment and stability in restorative poses, while offering longlasting comfort for seated meditation and breathing exercises.

"Our goal is to create tools that support the emotional and physical depth of yoga and meditation practices," says founder of Yoga Soul. "This new bolster collection reflects our dedication to craftsmanship, comfort, and conscious living."

Each bolster is assembled locally in Australia and designed with practicality in mind, featuring removable, washable covers and easy-to-carry handles. With soft, earthy colours and minimalist aesthetics, Yoga Soul's bolster yoga cushions not only support the body but also bring a calming presence to any space.

This launch is part of Yoga Soul's larger mission: to promote mindfulness, well-being, and a deeper connection between body, breath, and spirit—through sustainable, thoughtfully made products.
