

56 Executive Search Launches to Redefine High-Level Hiring with Precision and Discretion

Saratoga Springs, New York Jul 18, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - 56 Executive Search, a boutique executive search firm specializing in VP, Director, and C-suite placements, officially announces its launch. Founded by seasoned industry professionals James and Dona, the firm is built on the principle that trust is our signature placement.

With a discreet, high-touch approach, 56 Executive Search partners with organizations across industries to source and place transformative leadership talent. From rapidly scaling startups to established enterprises, the firm delivers tailored, retained search services for critical leadership roles, ensuring each placement drives impact and aligns with long-term organizational goals.

“We launched 56 Executive Search to fill a void in the market, executive recruitment that blends elite access with a human touch,” said James, Managing Partner. “This isn’t transactional recruiting. It’s trusted advisory built on genuine relationships.”

Leveraging deep industry insight, hands-on experience, and an expansive leadership network, the firm offers confidential search services, strategic market mapping, and in-depth candidate evaluation processes designed to reduce risk and elevate hiring outcomes.

56 Executive Search is currently accepting a limited number of new client engagements for Q3 and Q4 2025. The firm’s selective approach ensures focus, discretion, and measurable results that matter.
