

Abkamara.com Launches as US-Based E-Commerce Platform Blending Global Brands and Private Label Products

Founded by entrepreneur Abdulai Bundu Kamara, Abkamara.com offers shoppers an online marketplace combining trusted global products with exclusive items under the ABKamara brand.

Columbus, Ohio Jul 16, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Abkamara.com, a new US-based e-commerce platform, officially launched in June 2023 to provide shoppers with an extensive range of global products alongside its exclusive private label brand, ABKamara.

Founded by Sierra Leonean entrepreneur Abdulai Bundu Kamara and headquartered in Columbus, Ohio, Abkamara.com operates on a hybrid business model. The platform combines resale of established global brands with specially curated private label items designed to deliver both variety and value. Today, the company employs around 500 people worldwide and is steadily expanding its reach.

“Our mission with Abkamara.com is to create a seamless shopping experience that connects people to products they can trust,” said founder & CEO Abdulai Bundu Kamara. “By blending trusted global brands with exclusive ABKamara products, we bring customers more choice and affordability.”

Abkamara.com’s catalog includes categories such as women’s and men’s fashion, electronics, beauty, home and kitchen, health, pet supplies, auto parts, and more. By working with a network of established global vendors, the platform offers competitive pricing and a broad selection tailored for diverse customer needs.

Looking ahead, Abkamara.com plans to expand its private label offerings under ABKamara, invest in digital tools for improved logistics, and enhance its online shopping experience for customers both in the US and internationally.
