

AF International College Announces New ESL Campus in Pasadena!

AF INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL OF LANGUAGE

Los Angeles, California Jul 25, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - A F International College, a leading institution for English as a second language (ESL) education, announces the opening of its new Pasadena campus.

The new campus brings the college's personalized language programs to the Greater Los Angeles area, offering an accessible, flexible, and accredited pathway for local and international students to achieve fluency in English.

“The campus will offer small class sizes, highly qualified instructors, and convenient access to public transportation, which makes it easy for students to enhance their English language skills”, says the spokesperson of AF International College.

This expansion reinforces the college’s ongoing commitment to providing top-tier ESL Classes in Pasadena and fostering cultural and professional integration for students worldwide.

Growing with the Community: A Trusted Name in ESL Education

A F International College has earned a good reputation for its personalized, student-centered approach to ESL education. The Pasadena campus continues that tradition, offering a variety of programs for all proficiency levels—from beginner to advanced learners.

To polish your language skills for university, work, or day-to-day life, A F International College’s flexible and affordable programs are designed to help students succeed.

As a SEVP-certified institution, A F International College is authorized to issue I-20 forms for F-1 student visas, providing comprehensive support throughout the visa process, including transfer-in assistance and SEVIS guidance.

Quality Education, Convenient Location

The new Pasadena campus is situated in the city’s vibrant center, which offers easy access to nearby cities like South Pasadena, San Marino, and Altadena. The campus is just a walk away from the Metro Gold Line’s Memorial Park and Lake stations, with various bus routes nearby.

Students can enjoy the rich cultural offerings of Pasadena, including iconic landmarks such as Old Pasadena, the Rose Bowl, Caltech, and the Huntington Library & Gardens, all within close reach.

What they offer

They provide a wide variety of ESL courses which are designed to meet the needs of students at different levels. They focus on practical language use and help to develop communication skills for real-world applications.

Courses offered at the Pasadena campus include:

- Intensive ESL Program (Level 1-5): The course offers in-depth language instruction for all proficiency levels.
- English For Professional & Communication: The courses will develop better business language skills and communication.
- TOEFL Preparation: The course is designed to help students who want to achieve high scores on the TOEFL exam and succeed in U.S. colleges and universities.

Each program is designed to deliver good results with flexible schedules to fits students' busy lives.

Join Us Today!

Start your journey today! A F International College has opened admission windows for its Pasadena campus. The flexible class schedules, professional teachers, and a supportive environment will help every student improve their language skills.

About A F International College

A F International College is a leading provider of English as a Second Language education, offering personalized, accredited programs to students worldwide. The college focuses on small class sizes, expert instructors, and flexible scheduling. We empower students to achieve fluency and succeed in their academic, professional, and personal achievements. The new Pasadena Campus joins the college's network of locations, which is committed to delivering exceptional ESL education.

Media Contact

AF International School of Language

@afint.com

6267162445

3807 Wilshire Blvd Ste 600 Los Angeles, CA, USA 90010 (Main Campus)

Source : AF International School Of Language

See on IssueWire