

Angie Loeffler, CNM, APRN, MSN, C-EFM, Enhances Maternal Care in Cookeville, TN

Seasoned Certified Nurse Midwife Joins TriStar Centennial Medical Center and ShareStaff to Extend Compassionate, Evidence-Based Services

New York City, New York Jul 16, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Angie Loeffler, CNM, APRN, MSN, C-EFM—a highly accomplished and credentialed Certified Nurse Midwife—has officially begun extending her expertise to women and families in the Cookeville area through her dual roles with TriStar Centennial Medical Center and ShareStaff. With an exceptional background in obstetrics, advanced fetal monitoring, and leadership, Loeffler is committed to delivering compassionate, high-quality maternal and reproductive health care.

Loeffler brings a robust clinical portfolio, including certifications in Advanced Cardiac Life Support (ACLS), Basic Life Support (BLS), Neonatal Resuscitation Program (NRP), and electronic fetal monitoring (C-EFM). Currently serving at TriStar Centennial Medical Center and ShareStaff since early 2024, she joins a cadre of care providers focused on enhancing maternal and neonatal outcomes with evidence-based protocols.

Her care philosophy emphasizes holistic, family-centered support. Loeffler advocates for natural childbirth when safe and appropriate, while ensuring all clients are empowered with full information, personalized birth planning, and continual monitoring to ensure both maternal and infant well-being. Her experience as an instructor at the Galen College of Nursing further underscores her dedication to education and mentorship in the profession.

Beyond her clinical expertise, Angie Loeffler is a veteran of the U.S. Navy, where she served as both a nurse and cryptologic technician. These roles built her resilience, leadership, and crisis-management skills—qualities she now seamlessly integrates into her midwifery practice. Her military-to-healthcare transition exemplifies a lifelong mission of service and adaptability, bolstering her capacity to lead in fast-paced clinical environments.

In her current roles at TriStar and ShareStaff, Angie Loeffler is focused on expanding access to prenatal, delivery, and postpartum care across the Upper Cumberland region. Her contribution not only strengthens clinical staffing but also underscores a commitment to maternal health equity and patient-centered outcomes. Patients and providers can expect an enhanced care model backed by her advanced training, holistic approach, and unwavering dedication to family wellness.
