Anne Wells: Your Trusted Guide in Boulder's Real Estate Market

New York City, New York Jul 17, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Anne Wells, a seasoned real estate professional and broker associate with MileHighModern-Boulder, is making waves in the local real estate market, leveraging her extensive experience and deep-rooted knowledge of Boulder and its surrounding communities. With decades of insight and a specialization in residential and luxury properties, Anne is the go-to resource for clients seeking to relocate to this vibrant area.

As a dedicated mother of three native Boulderites, Anne's profound understanding of the local education and sports scene uniquely positions her to assist families moving to the area. A proud graduate of the University of Colorado with degrees in English and fine arts, she obtained her real estate license in 1994. Anne skillfully incorporates her interests in photography and architecture into her work, allowing her to creatively blend art and functionality in every space she encounters. This artistic vision empowers her to conceptualize tailored solutions that perfectly align with her clients' lifestyles.

What sets Anne apart is her no-pressure, hands-on approach. Known for creating a fun and stress-free environment, she combines a laid-back demeanor with unwavering honesty, fiercely advocating for her clients throughout the transaction process. Anne's commitment to her clients extends beyond closing deals—she builds lasting relationships rooted in trust and transparency.

Her dedication and client-first mentality have not gone unnoticed. In the first half of 2024, Anne was recognized as a Top Producer and ranked among the Top 100 Realtors in Boulder County. Further solidifying her status, she was named the #4 Top REALTOR® in Boulder County for the first quarter of 2025. Anne attributes her success to her unique approach, characterized by availability, attentiveness, and a genuine desire to listen and care for her clients.

With over 30 years of experience in the Boulder area, Anne possesses unmatched local knowledge that spans schools, neighborhoods, and evolving market trends. A committed community member, she actively supports the Humane Society of Boulder County, Greenwood Wildlife Rehabilitation, and the Wild Animal Sanctuary, reflecting her deep connection to the Boulder area.

Outside of her real estate endeavors, Anne enjoys practicing yoga and embraces her adventurous spirit through mountain biking, fly fishing, and hiking with her dogs. She treasures quality time with her family, loves sketching and gardening, and finds joy in live music, especially at Red Rocks. Recently, she has rekindled her passion for playing the guitar, appreciating the tranquility it brings to her life.
