London, United Kingdom Jul 31, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Books to Life Marketing is honored to announce the release of "Not Averse to Verse", a beautifully curated poetry collection by the late Antoni Williams. Published shortly before his passing in September 2024, this heartfelt volume stands as a final artistic gift from a writer whose passion for language and expression touched the lives of many.

*"Even the smallest verse can stir the soul,
a gentle reminder that we rise, not in silence, but in song". - Antoni Williams*

In Not Averse to Verse, Williams explores the spectrum of human emotion from love and longing to resilience and reflection. Each poem is crafted with accessible language and layered meaning, inviting readers to reflect on their own experiences while appreciating the nuance of life's quiet moments. His verses are both playful and profound, making this collection equally appealing to lifelong poetry lovers and new readers alike.

This book is more than a collection of poems, it's a celebration of voice, memory, and the enduring impact of one man's creative spirit. Whether you are grieving, laughing, remembering, or simply contemplating the world around you, Williams' poetry offers a place to pause and feel deeply.

About the Author:

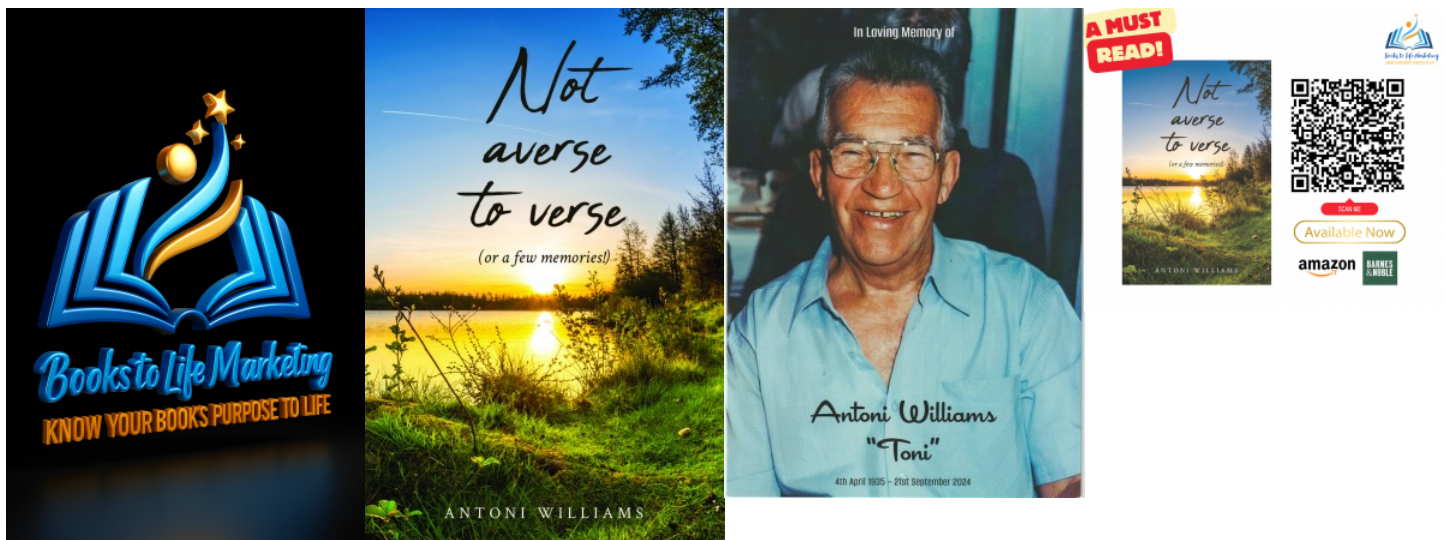

Born in Bristol, England, on 4 April 1935, Antoni Williams immigrated to New Zealand in 1980, where he built a new life filled with love, creativity, and purpose. He married Elnora Lauro Abarcar in 1986, and together they shared 38 years of joyful companionship until his passing on 21 September 2024. A lifelong lover of language, Antoni's work reflects a deep sensitivity to the rhythms of life and the truths that unite us all. Not Averse to Verse is his lasting testament to the power of words.
