Arleen Richman: Your Trusted Realtor in Massachusetts and Rhode Island

New York City, New York Jul 8, 2025 (issuewire.com) - With over 24 years of dedicated experience in the real estate industry, Arleen Richman is proud to serve as a seasoned Realtor at RE/MAX Real Estate Center, catering to clients across Massachusetts and Rhode Island. Holding active licenses in both states, Arleen possesses extensive knowledge of diverse markets, from the bustling city of Boston to the charming towns of North Attleboro and continuing into Rhode Island, with a special focus on residential sales.

Residing in North Attleboro for two decades, Arleen's local expertise allows her to provide personalized guidance that speaks to the unique needs of each client. "I approach every client interaction with a focus on ensuring an enjoyable and engaging experience," Arleen states. Her deep commitment to supporting clients through every stage of the real estate process is evident, particularly in her work with first-time homebuyers. She walks them through each step with care and clarity, making the journey to homeownership a rewarding experience.

For sellers, Arleen brings strategic insights on pricing, staging, and presentation, ensuring that their properties stand out in a competitive market. Her strong communication skills and client-focused approach make each transaction smooth and collaborative, allowing her clients to feel informed and empowered throughout the process.

Arleen's passion for the North Attleboro community is palpable. Having raised her three children in the area, she values the strong sense of community, excellent school systems, and the welcoming atmosphere that make North Attleboro a great place to live. Her commitment to education and personalized service has earned her numerous accolades, including the RE/MAX 100% Club from 2016 to 2022 and the prestigious Platinum Club in 2023. Furthermore, she is a proud recipient of the Good Neighbor Award, reflecting her dedication to community engagement.

Outside of real estate, Arleen enjoys reading, cheering on her favorite Boston sports teams, and participating in local events and fundraisers, embodying her belief in giving back to the community.

If you are looking for a dedicated, experienced, and personable realtor who will listen to your aspirations and work collaboratively to make them a reality, Arleen Richman is your ideal partner.
