

Arohul Foods Launches 2-Litre HDP Jar of Soya Health Refined Oil—A Perfect Blend of Taste and Wellness

Arohul Foods Pvt Ltd, a trusted name in quality cooking oils, has introduced a new pack size for its popular Arohul Soya Health Refined Oil.

Bahraich, Uttar Pradesh Jul 9, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Arohul Foods Pvt Ltd, a trusted name in quality cooking oils, has introduced a new pack size for its popular Arohul Soya Health Refined Oil. Now available in a convenient 2-litre HDP jar, the product offers a perfect combination of health, lightness, and flavor for today's home cooks and health-conscious families.

This premium refined oil is carefully processed using high-grade soyabean seeds and goes through multiple purification stages to ensure clarity, taste, and nutrition. It is fortified with essential vitamins A and D, making it more than just a cooking medium—it becomes a daily nutritional support. Free from cholesterol and trans fats, this light oil helps maintain heart health and is suitable for everyday Indian cooking needs like frying, sautéing, baking, or tadka.

Key Features of Arohul Soya Health Refined Oil (2L HDP Jar):

- Fortified with Vitamin A & D for enhanced immunity and bone health
- Light texture with a neutral flavor that doesn't overpower food
- High smoke point, ideal for Indian cooking methods
- Zero cholesterol and trans fats, supporting a heart-healthy lifestyle
- Sturdy, reusable HDP jar for easy handling and storage

Speaking about the launch, a spokesperson from Arohul Foods Pvt Ltd said:

"Consumers are now actively seeking cleaner, healthier cooking oils that don't compromise on taste. With our 2-litre pack, we're offering both convenience and wellness in one solution—backed by trusted quality and affordability."

Arohul Foods continues to expand its product portfolio with a focus on purity, hygiene, and consumer well-being. The company adheres to strict quality control at every stage of sourcing and production.

Whether you're preparing everyday meals for your family or experimenting with new recipes, Arohul Soya Health Refined Oil ensures a clean cooking experience and consistent taste, with the added benefit of nutritional support.
