

Boogie Cruise Drops on Steam: Young Entrepreneurs Launch Boogie Cruise with Speed and Sound

Boogie Cruise pioneers immersive sound design with an in-game live radio station, curated by THC Radio and streamed through CafeKinship.com.

Las Vegas, Nevada Jul 11, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Prepare to hit the digital streets with Boogie Cruise, an audacious new racing title arriving on Steam August 1, preceded by an early demo release on July 16th. Brought to life by independent creators Lilfoxeone (age 13) and Prismultra (age 11), this visually dynamic game showcases a remarkable blend of innovation and youthful vision.

Set within a high-speed multiverse, players will navigate dazzling cityscapes, icy tundras, and trap-laden dungeon realms. More than an adrenaline rush, Boogie Cruise breaks new ground through its audio synergy, featuring a seamlessly embedded radio station curated by THC Radio and streamed via CafeKinship.com.

Empowering Independent Soundscapes

For artists, Boogie Cruise serves as a revolutionary venue. Independent musicians can submit their tracks directly through CafeKinship.com, offering global exposure as racers tune in mid-race. This unique platform fuses creative communities, making the game a collaborative experience that celebrates both competition and discovery. Now available to wishlist on Steam.

Meet the Creators

Released under the Skill Mode label, Lilfoxeone and Prismultra exemplify the next wave of talent driving digital innovation. Their vision—an intersection of immersive gameplay and grassroots creativity—signals a powerful evolution in how games can be built, experienced, and shared.

With its genre-defying design and community-centered features, Boogie Cruise promises to resonate across players, artists, and tech-savvy audiences, proving that ingenuity has no age boundaries.
