

Casey's Hotel Glengarriff: A Warm Welcome for Visitors Looking for Hotels Near Bantry Bay

Looking for relaxing Bantry Bay accommodation that feels just like home? Look no further than Casey's Hotel Glengarriff, a charming family-run hotel nestled in the heart of West Cork.

Cork, Ireland Jul 28, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Whether you're planning a quiet weekend escape, a family holiday, or a scenic stop along the Wild Atlantic Way, Casey's Hotel offers everything you need—great food, warm beds, and unforgettable views, just a short drive from Bantry town.

Why Choose Casey's Hotel Glengarriff?

Here's why travellers love staying at Casey's Hotel:

- Perfect Location: Just minutes from the shores of Bantry Bay and Glengarriff Nature Reserve, you'll be surrounded by mountains, sea, and nature trails.
- Cosy and Comfortable: The rooms are bright, clean, and made for rest and relaxation after a day of exploring.
- Fresh Local Food: The hotel's restaurant serves delicious, locally sourced meals, including fresh seafood and traditional Irish favourites.

With its peaceful setting and friendly team, Casey's Hotel is fast becoming one of the top choices for those searching for hotels near Bantry Bay.

An Irish Welcome That Feels Like Family

Casey's Hotel is proud to be one of the few remaining family-run hotels in Ireland. Owned and managed by the Casey family since 1884, the hotel has kept its warm-hearted spirit and personal touch through the generations.

Speaking about the hotel's continued success, the General Manager, said: "When people walk through our doors, we want them to feel like they've come home. That's the kind of care we give—friendly smiles, local knowledge, and a warm bed after a day on the road."

This commitment to comfort is why many guests return year after year.

A Gateway to Adventure and Beauty

If you're looking for Bantry Bay accommodation, Glengarriff is the perfect base to explore the wonders of West Cork. From here, visitors can:

- Take a boat trip to Garnish Island, home to beautiful gardens and seals sunbathing on the rocks.
- Enjoy scenic drives through the Beara Peninsula, filled with history, mountains, and sea views.
- Stroll through Glengarriff Nature Reserve, perfect for family walks and spotting red squirrels and birds.

The Tourism Officer for West Cork said, "Glengarriff is a gem on the Wild Atlantic Way, and Casey's Hotel is one of the best places to experience it. It's more than just a stay — it's a chance to slow down, breathe fresh sea air, and reconnect with what matters."

Booking Your Stay

Whether you're looking to unwind, explore, or enjoy quality time with loved ones, Casey's Hotel Glengarriff makes it simple. The hotel offers:

- Online booking with instant confirmation
- Free parking for guests
- Wi-Fi in all rooms and public areas
- Dog-friendly stays (with advance notice)

Bookings are now open for the autumn and winter seasons. Early booking is advised, especially during bank holidays and festive periods.

A Message from the Casey Family

At Casey's Hotel, you're not just a guest—you're a friend. The hotel's long-standing tradition of service, paired with its love for local culture and nature, makes every stay a special one.

About Casey's Hotel Glengarriff

Founded in 1884, Casey's Hotel Glengarriff is a family-run hotel located in the picturesque village of Glengarriff, County Cork. Overlooking the stunning Bantry Bay and close to the Wild Atlantic Way, the hotel offers warm hospitality, local cuisine, and easy access to some of West Cork's most beautiful attractions. With deep roots in the community and a passion for creating memorable stays, Casey's Hotel continues to be a beloved destination for both Irish and international travellers.

Media Contact

caseys hotel glengarriff

@pluspromotions.ie

Source : Casey's Hotel Glengarriff

See on IssueWire