Christy May: A Global Real Estate Expert Proudly Serving All of Southwest Florida, Sarasota, and Lakewood Ranch

New York City, New York Jul 31, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Christy May, Broker Associate with Coldwell Banker Realty and Team Lead of The May Group Real Estate, is redefining real estate service in Sarasota, Florida, through her unique blend of strategic sales and marketing expertise. As a Certified International Property Specialist fluent in English, French, and Swedish, Christy brings a global perspective to her work, guiding clients seamlessly through every stage of their transactions.

With an impressive academic background from the University of Miami, where she earned a BS in Biochemistry and an AB in Communications, Christy's career began in communications. Her tenure at Channel 10 in Miami included reporting on groundbreaking news from the Rosenstiel School of Marine and Atmospheric Science, as well as preparing critical grant proposals for various agencies. This experience laid the groundwork for her future endeavors in real estate and marketing.

Christy's connection to Sarasota runs deep; she spent part of her childhood on a Thoroughbred racehorse farm in Myakka Ranches. Following her time at Boston University, where she earned a Master's Degree in Communications, she continued her path in media, serving as a News Producer at Channel 5 and contributing to program promotion at Channels 4 and 56. Her entrepreneurial spirit led her to establish DM Communications, where she honed her skills in marketing and strategic planning.

One of Christy's notable achievements in commercial real estate was producing a pivotal 9-minute video summary for Massport, securing a 99-year lease that became the cornerstone of Boston's South Seaport. Faced with 19 competing proposals, her compelling presentation not only secured Fidelity's FMR properties but also played a critical role in the project's success, now known as BOSCOM. Additionally, Christy's work in strategic planning and development of the Rose Kennedy Greenway showcased her ability to advocate effectively for community interests.

Today, Christy's multifaceted expertise encompasses both commercial and residential property transactions. With a proven track record in market research, strategic planning, and sales, she provides tailored real estate solutions across multiple Florida markets, including Bradenton, Sarasota, Tampa, Naples, and beyond. Her extensive experience is particularly advantageous when navigating the complexities of buying and selling marinas, a niche area in the vibrant Florida real estate landscape.

Known for her unwavering commitment to client advocacy, Christy approaches every transaction with the same care and dedication she would extend to her family. Whether representing buyers or sellers, her goal is to ensure a smooth and successful transaction process, characterized by open communication and strategic insights.

As a trusted real estate advisor, Christy May invites clients to explore the diverse opportunities in Florida's real estate market. With her global perspective and local expertise, she is well-equipped to help clients achieve their real estate dreams.
