

Cris BLU'CK Unleashes a Dark Fusion of AI & Aggression in Explosive New Single “Black and Blue”

Warner Robins, Georgia Jul 23, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Puerto Rico-born rap innovator Cris BL[?]CK (formerly known as Oni The Black) is shaking up the underground music scene with the release of his latest genre-blurring track, “Black and Blue.” Now streaming on SoundCloud, this gritty single fuses elements of Deathcore, early 2000s rap, and AI-driven sonic chaos, marking a bold new chapter in experimental hip-hop.

Drawing inspiration from icons like ICP, Eminem, Beastie Boys, and Limp Bizkit, Cris BL[?]CK blends metal rage with digital precision. His self-created AI persona, developed on Suno, fuels the creative engine behind his sound—offering a raw, unfiltered energy that speaks to outcasts, misfits, and lovers of rebellious music.

“I call it Deathcore AI Rap—because it’s brutal, loud, weird, and 100% me,” says Cris. “Every track is a living, breathing project I evolve over time with edits, remixes, and characters I create myself.”

Originally from Río Piedras, Puerto Rico, and repping Fajardo roots, Cris BL[?]CK has been grinding for over a decade—honing a sound that refuses to fit in a box. His commitment to independence and innovation has already earned him radio placements on 97.1 FM and 102.7 FM, with features on Digital DJ Pool, gaining traction from underground DJs and tastemakers.
