

Dr. Edgardo S. Santos Advances Oncology Care Across Florida

Board-certified oncologist delivers compassionate, evidence-based cancer treatment and survivorship support

New York City, New York Jul 9, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Florida Cancer & Hematology Center is honored to welcome Dr. Edgardo S. Santos, MD, FACP, FASCO, a nationally recognized oncologist dedicated to elevating cancer care throughout Florida. With world-class training and a patient-first philosophy, Dr. Santos offers advanced, personalized treatment strategies across the cancer care continuum—from diagnosis to survivorship.

Dr. Santos earned his Doctor of Medicine and completed a residency in internal medicine, followed by fellowship training in hematology and oncology. He holds certifications from the American Board of Internal Medicine and is a Fellow of both the American College of Physicians and the American Society of Clinical Oncology. His expertise spans solid tumors and hematologic cancers, including breast, lung, colorectal, lymphoma, myeloma, and leukemia.

At Florida Cancer & Hematology Center, Dr. Santos offers comprehensive oncology services, including precision diagnostics, targeted therapies, immunotherapy, chemotherapy, and integrative care planning. He collaborates with a multidisciplinary team—radiologists, surgeons, pathologists, nurses, and support specialists—to provide holistic and coordinated treatment tailored to each patient's individual needs.

Dr. Santos is valued for his empathetic communication, patient education, and shared decision-making approach. He dedicates time to explain treatment options, side effect management, and coping strategies, empowering patients and families throughout their cancer journey. He also actively supports clinical trials, offering patients access to cutting-edge therapies and novel treatment protocols.

Looking ahead, Dr. Santos plans to expand outreach programs across coastal and rural regions of Florida, develop virtual support groups for cancer survivors, and enhance patient navigation services for timely diagnosis and care access. His vision aligns with Florida Cancer & Hematology Center's mission to deliver compassionate, innovative, and equitable oncology care for every patient.
