

Dreamscripts Technologies Private Limited Launches ""The Centerstage"" where Spotlight Finds Talent

The World's First Truly Global Online Talent Platform

New Delhi, Delhi Jul 6, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Dreamscript Technology Solutions Pvt. Ltd. proudly announces the launch of The Centerstage, a groundbreaking online platform that connects aspiring performers from across the globe in music, dance, and stand-up comedy. Positioned as the world's first truly global digital talent stage, The Centerstage enables participants to showcase their talent, get discovered, and win life-changing rewards—right from the comfort of their homes and smartphones.

Harnessing the power of Artificial Intelligence for smart curation and Blockchain for transparent voting, The Centerstage transforms the traditional audition model into a seamless, democratic, and border-less digital experience.

"We built The Centerstage to break the barriers that have long held back deserving performers—geography, access, or privilege should never limit talent," said Ms. Anshu Kapoor, CEO and Co-Founder of Dreamscript. "This is more than a contest platform—it's a global celebration of creativity, culture, and raw talent. Whether you're a singer in Singapore, a dancer in Delhi, or a comic in Canada—your spotlight starts here."

Platform Highlights:

- * Open to All – Global participation with no regional or nationality restrictions.
- * Multi-Genre Competitions – Singing, Dancing & Stand-Up Comedy.
- * Upload-to-Fame – Performers submit videos via web or mobile.
- * AI Discovery Engine – Identifies top talent based on skill, engagement & growth.
- * Blockchain Voting – Ensures secure and transparent contest outcomes.
- * Handsome Rewards – Including cash prizes, brand deals, and music video productions and opportunity to participate in concerts and shows around the world.
- * Mentorship by Industry Icons – Finalists receive expert guidance and real-world performance opportunities.

First Contest: Tamil Singing – Launched June 19, 2025

The platform's debut contest—a Tamil-language global singing competition—was launched on 19th June 2025 and has seen enthusiastic participation from across continents, including India, the Middle East, the US, Canada, and Southeast Asia. Participants are categorized across five age brackets, with a special section for senior citizens, reinforcing The Centerstage's commitment to inclusivity.

Upcoming Contests: Malayalam, Telugu & Kannada

Building on this momentum, The Centerstage will soon launch new contests in Malayalam, Telugu, and Kannada, catering to diverse linguistic communities and offering more regional talent a global audience. Each contest will include multiple age categories and provide unique opportunities for mentorship, exposure, and monetization.
