

Eurl.me Digital vCard Platform to Make Networking Smarter and Seamless

Eurl.me Digital vCard Platform

Noida, Uttar Pradesh Jul 22, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - In today's fast-paced, digital-first world, how professionals connect and share information has evolved — and now, it just got a lot smarter. Today, eurl.me, a cutting-edge digital identity startup, announces the launch of its intelligent digital vCard platform, designed to revolutionize personal and professional networking for the modern age.

With eurl.me, users can instantly create and share custom digital business cards (vCards) or short branded links, eliminating the need for traditional paper cards and enabling contactless networking at events, meetings, or online.

“Business cards haven’t kept up with how we work or connect,” said founder of eurl.me. “We built eurl.me to be more than just a digital card — it’s a smart, interactive profile that professionals can carry in their pocket, on their phone, or even embed in their email signature.”

Key Features of eurl.me:

- One-click vCard Creation — Set up a professional digital profile with name, photo, contact info, social links, portfolio, location, and more
- Custom URLs & Branding — Choose your custom eurl.me link (e.g., eurl.me/johndoe) for personal branding and ease of sharing
- Analytics Dashboard — Track profile views, scans, and engagement metrics in real time
- Mobile & Desktop Responsive — Your vCard looks stunning on any device, anytime, anywhere

Why It Matters

Traditional business cards are not only outdated but also environmentally wasteful. With the rise of remote work, virtual meetings, and hybrid networking, eurl.me's digital vCard offers a modern, paperless alternative that fits seamlessly into today's workflows. It's ideal for freelancers, entrepreneurs, sales teams, event attendees, and corporate professionals looking to stand out and stay connected.

Availability

The eurl.me digital vCard platform is now live and available worldwide. Users can sign up for a free basic plan, with premium features such as analytics, and advanced customization available through affordable monthly subscriptions.
