New York City, New York Jul 31, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Dr. William H. Gillard, MD, a dedicated family medicine physician with over four decades of clinical experience, is delivering compassionate, accessible care to individuals and families in South Holland and the greater Chicago Southland area. Based at Aunt Martha's Health & Wellness — South Holland Community Health Center, he leverages a comprehensive primary care model to support patients across all age groups and life stages.

A graduate of Dalhousie University Faculty of Medicine, Dr. Gillard completed his family medicine residency at Mount Sinai Hospital in Chicago and is board-certified by the American Board of Family Medicine. His expertise spans chronic disease management, preventive screenings, physical and occupational medicine, and behavioral health integration. His approach centers on delivering personalized care that addresses both the physical and emotional needs of his patients.

Over the course of his career, Dr. Gillard has earned a reputation as a compassionate and thorough physician, known for his attentive listening, thoughtful explanations, and commitment to patient education. His clinical interests include managing complex conditions such as Type 2 diabetes, hypertension, and dermatologic disorders. He is especially praised for making patients feel seen, heard, and respected.

Dr. Gillard currently serves patients at Aunt Martha's South Holland Community Health Center, located at 52 W 162nd Street. The clinic offers extended hours, including evenings and Saturdays, to better accommodate families, working individuals, and urgent care needs. In addition to his work in South Holland, he is affiliated with other area healthcare providers, further extending his reach and service to the community.

With a strong commitment to community-based, relationship-driven care, Dr. Gillard continues to serve as a trusted source of health and support in the South Holland area. His leadership at Aunt Martha's reflects a lifelong dedication to advancing primary care, promoting wellness, and improving the lives of patients through every stage of life.
