

Filipino Indie Artist Rises Through TikTok With Debut Single “Galit sa Puso”

Northern Mindanao, Philippines Jul 30, 2025 (Issuewire.com) -

Welfred Panes, a Filipino singer-songwriter currently gaining attention on TikTok as an independent artist. He recently released his debut single titled “Galit sa Puso,” and it has started to resonate with a growing audience especially young Filipinos and international listeners without any backing from a major label.

With over 11,000 TikTok followers and an active online presence, Welfred is a part of a new generation of artists using social media to share original music, connect with fans, and build a platform through storytelling and creativity. His music is rooted in emotion and personal experiences, aiming to give hope and inspire fellow dreamers.

He also believe that his story can inspire others who are building their music careers independently, and he also love to be featured through digital or entertainment coverage even through a written feature without the need for a physical interview.
