

FreightPath Unveils Revamped Website, Elevating The Online Learning Experience For Supply Chain/Logistics Professionals

Chicago, Illinois Jul 22, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - FreightPath, the leading platform for online logistics and supply chain education, is excited to announce the launch of its newly designed website—<https://gofreightpath.com>. The upgraded site offers a more intuitive, user-friendly experience tailored to meet the needs of individual learners, corporate teams, and enterprise clients worldwide.

FreightPath offers online comprehensive learning content to build real-world logistics and supply chain expertise. The new site features streamlined navigation, an enhanced course catalog, and easier access to FreightPath's growing library of accredited programs.

"FreightPath is committed to making quality logistics and supply chain education more accessible," said John Delgado III, CEO of FreightPath. "The FreightPath platform allows companies to upskill teams more efficiently, while individual professionals and students can easily access the knowledge they need to grow their careers."

Key enhancements to the new website include:

- Simplified Navigation: Faster, easier course discovery.
- Expanded Course Catalog: Search by category, keyword, or accreditation (e.g., CSCMP-endorsed, CBP-accredited).
- Enhanced Course Information: Clear details on lesson count, duration, and pricing.

FreightPath's curriculum spans critical areas such as import/export operations, customs compliance, dangerous goods handling, Incoterms, air, ocean and ground modes of transportation, geography for logistics, and cargo risk management. All courses are certificate-based and designed to deliver immediately applicable skills.

All FreightPath courses are approved and endorsed by the Council of Supply Chain Management Professionals (CSCMP) and many courses are accredited by U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) for their continuing education program for licensed customs brokers.

"In today's fast-moving and increasingly complex trade environment, practical, up-to-date training is essential," said Delgado. "Our courses empower professionals to stay compliant, competitive, and well-prepared for the demands of global logistics."

About FreightPath:
