

Hrishtune - A New Voice in Music and Animated Filmmaking from India

Pune, Maharashtra Aug 1, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Known by his stage name Hrishtune, Indian artist and filmmaker Hrishikesh Jadhav is a rising talent in the world of emotionally driven music and independent 3D animated cinema. As both a musical artist and animation film director, Hrishtune is redefining creative expression in India with his heartfelt storytelling and soulful soundscapes.

He is the grandson of a notable art director, Baburao Jadhav, who worked with V.Shantaram at Rajkamal Studio (Mumbai).

Under the name Hrishtune, he has composed and released original songs that blend melody with emotion, often touching on themes of love, introspection, and spiritual searching. Simultaneously, his work as an animation director has resulted in an upcoming 49-minute independent animated film (film name not disclosed) that explores deeper human truths through immersive visuals and original concepts—all developed outside the commercial studio system.

“Music and film are not just formats for me,” says Hrishtune. “They are languages of the soul. I don’t create for trends—I create for connection.”

Born as Hrishikesh Jadhav, Hrishtune has independently built a creative brand that now reaches audiences via Spotify, YouTube, IMDb, and social platforms. His work resonates with those seeking authenticity in an age of algorithms.

As an artist working outside traditional systems, Hrishtune brings a rare voice that is both sincere and self-taught, merging the emotional depth of indie music with the imagination of animated visual storytelling.
