Dubai, United Arab Emirates Jul 9, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Iranian Mosaic Artist Elham Mohammadnia Wins Second Place in UAE International Art Competition on World Environment Day 2025.

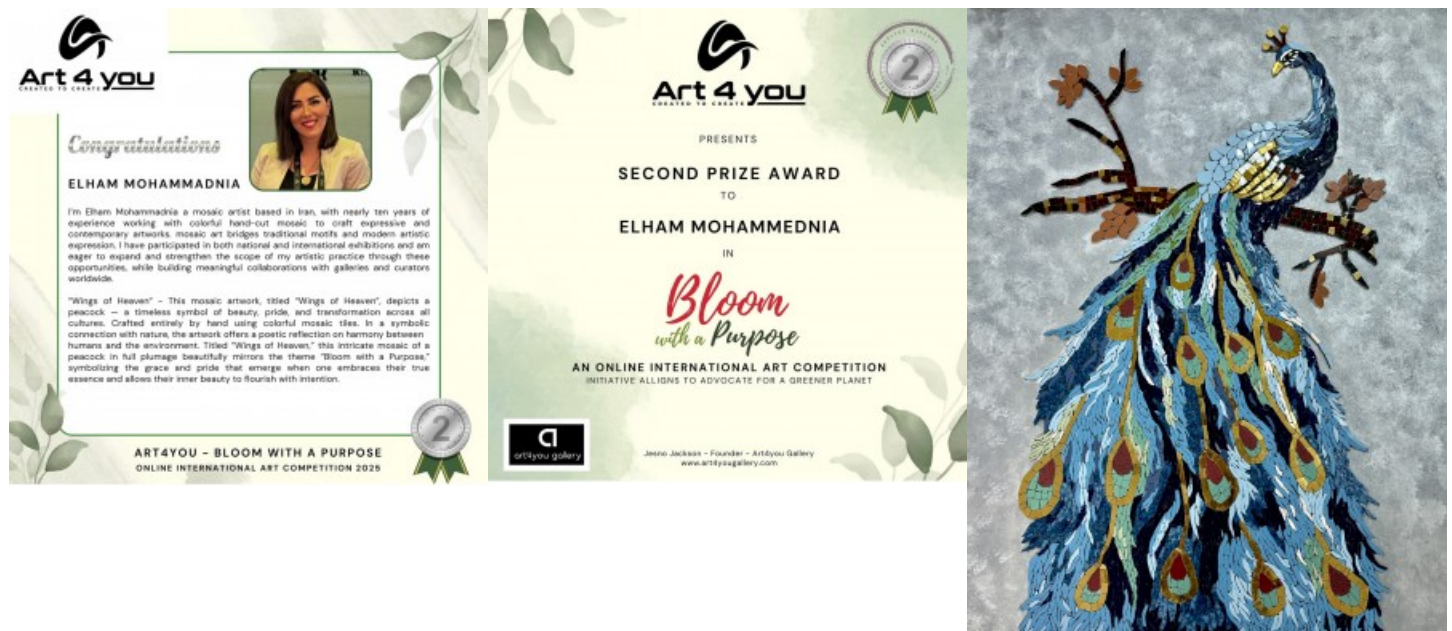

Her winning piece, titled “Wings of Heaven”, stood out among hundreds of submissions from artists across the globe for its creative approach and environmental message.

The exhibition, held virtually in July 2025, aimed to showcase artworks that reflect the relationship between nature and human consciousness. Elham’s mosaic work captivated the jury with its delicate detailing, emotional depth, and thoughtful interpretation of environmental harmony.

“I wanted to create something that honors both fragility and strength in nature,” Elham shared. “Wings of Heaven” is a tribute to the unseen forces that keep our world balanced.

Elham Mohammadnia specializes in mosaic art and explores different themes. Her unique technique and artistic voice are gaining recognition both locally and internationally.
