2025 WINNERS ANNOUNCED

Los Angeles, California Jul 5, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Iranian Artist Erfan Kanani Wins Two Bronze Medals at the Global Music Awards 2025 for 'Nejbîr'.

Musicians who are recognized at the Global Music Awards are appreciated for their precious contributions. Iranian composer and instrumentalist Erfan Kanani is one of the greatest contributors as well as a winner at the Global Music Awards 2025 for his latest creation, 'Nejbîr'. The artist has received a total of Two Bronze Medals in the Composition and Instrumentalist categories. Winning two medals in distinct categories is a rare distinction, marking Kanani as one of the standout talents of this year's awards.

Erfan Kanani's creative work is based on the musical traditions of Iran and Kurdish-Persian heritage that stood out among hundreds of submissions from around the world. The latest work, 'Nejbîr', is a powerful instrumental composition that blends traditional timbres with emotional depth and technical mastery. According to Kanani, "Music is my way of preserving memory, expressing identity, and building bridges across cultures. 'Nejbîr' is both personal and universal, and I'm honored to see it resonate with listeners worldwide."

The Global Music Awards is one of the most prestigious international platforms for independent musicians, highlighting outstanding creativity and innovation. Kanani's double win at GMA has provided the motivation that he needs to expand his musical path internationally while honoring his roots. He is planning to drop more exquisite compositions in the coming days of 2025.
