

Iranian Composer Mohammadreza Ajdari Gains Global Recognition for Emotional Instrumental Track "Els"

Finalist at the Hollywood Independent Music Awards 2025, "Els" showcases Ajdari's cinematic approach to world music and emotional storytelling.

Tehran, Iran Jul 3, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Mohammadreza Ajdari, an emerging voice in instrumental and cinematic music, is gaining international attention for his latest single, "Els." With its deep emotional layers and fusion of Persian heritage and modern orchestral textures, "Els" delivers a haunting yet hopeful soundscape that resonates with listeners worldwide.

This moving composition was recently selected as a finalist in the World Music category at the Hollywood Independent Music Awards 2025 and also received a Certificate of Recognition from the World Entertainment Awards. These honors reflect Ajdari's growing presence on the global stage and his unique approach to instrumental storytelling.

Ajdari, a graduate of the University of Art in Tehran with a degree in Global Music Performance, has dedicated his life to crafting emotionally rich and culturally rooted music. He is also the founder of Tanin Honar Academy, where he mentors young talents in the field of global and cinematic music. His works often explore themes of identity, nature, and human emotion through deeply atmospheric and expressive arrangements.

With “Els,” Ajdari embarks on a journey to share Iranian emotional depth through instrumental language, aiming for recognition in international platforms such as the Grammy Awards. The track has already gained listeners in multiple countries and is receiving attention from global music professionals and fans alike.

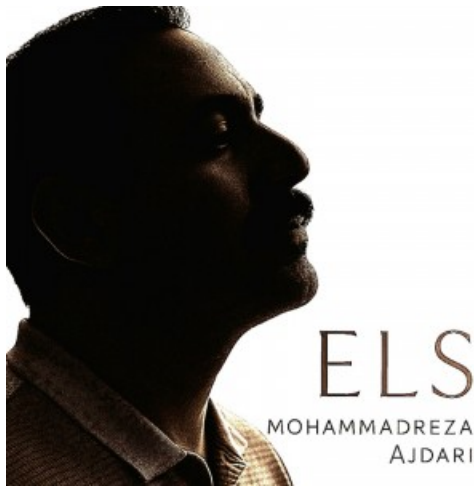

“Els” is currently streaming on all major platforms:
