

Jesse Wolfe, DPM, FACFAS, Elevates Podiatric Specialty Surgery in Rural Midwest

Board-certified podiatrist brings advanced foot and ankle treatments and patient-centered care to Northwest Iowa

New York City, New York Jul 9, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Jesse Wolfe, DPM, FACFAS, is a highly accomplished podiatric surgeon with a strong educational background and a commitment to advancing the field of foot and ankle surgery. He earned his Bachelor of Science Degree in Biology from Bethel

University in St. Paul, Minnesota, where he was not only a dedicated student but also an athlete competing in the university's football program. Following his undergraduate studies, Dr. Wolfe pursued a Doctor of Podiatric Medicine Degree at Des Moines University College of Podiatric Medicine and Surgery in Iowa.

Dr. Wolfe completed his residency at the SSM Health DePaul Hospital Foot and Ankle Surgery Program in St. Louis, where he honed his surgical skills. His commitment to excellence in podiatric medicine led him to undertake a traveling orthopedic fellowship with the German Society of Foot and Ankle Surgery, which he completed in 2019. After three years of practicing in a surgically active orthopedic setting in Iowa, he joined Mercy Orthopedics, where he continues to provide exceptional care to his patients.

Throughout his medical education and practice, Dr. Wolfe has made significant contributions to the field, publishing numerous articles and book chapters that focus on advanced surgical techniques for foot and ankle conditions. He has played a pivotal role in medical education as an editor for the Journal of Foot and Ankle Surgery Scientific Literature Reviews, and he serves on several scientific committees, including those for the Missouri Podiatric Medical Association and the Heartland Foot and Ankle Scientific Conference.

His leadership and expertise were recognized when he received the prestigious honors of Top Doctor and Top Professional from Marquis Who's Who in 2022 & 2023, as well as being named Best in Missouri Magazine in 2024 & 2025.

Dr. Wolfe has recently launched an exciting new venture, Motion Foot and Ankle Surgeons, in addition to his ongoing work with Mercy Orthopedics. Through this initiative, Dr. Wolfe is establishing specialized clinics across rural communities in Iowa and Missouri, with a mission to bring high-quality foot and ankle care to underserved populations. By expanding access to expert orthopedic services in areas where specialty care is often limited, Dr. Wolfe continues to demonstrate his commitment to improving outcomes and addressing healthcare disparities in the region.

Dr. Wolfe's insights and expertise have been showcased in notable publications, including a feature in the Wall Street Journal and as the cover story in Millenium Magazine for 2023. In addition to his clinical practice, he is dedicated to shaping future healthcare professionals through his teaching roles as adjunct faculty at Des Moines University College of Osteopathic Medicine and The University of Texas at San Antonio.

Board certified by the American Board of Foot and Ankle Surgery and a Fellow of the American College of Foot and Ankle Surgeons, Dr. Wolfe specializes in a range of areas including arthroscopy, sports medicine, minimally invasive surgery, trauma care, total ankle replacement, and advanced foot and ankle reconstruction.

Dr. Wolfe sees patients at Mercy Clinic Orthopedics in Troy and O'Fallon, Missouri. His newest clinics for Motion Foot and Ankle Surgeons are located in St. Louis and Memphis, Missouri and in Spencer, Iowa. Dr. Wolfe holds privileges at several Mercy hospitals in the region.
