Providing Expert Urologic Care With a Focus on Comfort, Compassion, and Improving Quality of Life

New York City, New York Jul 29, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Pioneer Valley Urology, P.C. is proud to highlight the expertise and commitment of Jonathan Starkman, MD, MBA, a board-certified urologic surgeon who has been providing exceptional care since joining the practice in August 2007. With a focus on both men's and women's urological health, Dr. Starkman and his colleagues are dedicated to delivering patient-centered, evidence-based treatment tailored to individual needs.

Dr. Starkman earned his Bachelor of Science in Molecular Biology from the University of Michigan in 1995, followed by his Doctor of Medicine from Wayne State University School of Medicine in 2000. He completed his urology residency training at Wayne State University Affiliated Hospitals from 2000 to 2005. Further enhancing his expertise, Dr. Starkman pursued advanced fellowship training in female urology, urodynamics, and reconstructive urology at Vanderbilt University Medical Center from 2005 to 2007. In addition, he obtained a Master of Business Administration Degree from The Heller School for Social Policy and Management at Brandeis University in 2025, combining his medical expertise with valuable management skills.

At Pioneer Valley Urology, Dr. Starkman is a vital part of a team of board-certified urologists who offer a comprehensive range of services. From medical management and lifestyle advice to advanced minimally invasive procedures and surgeries, the practice is fully equipped to address all aspects of urological care. The team's commitment to patient-centered treatment ensures that each patient receives personalized care in a supportive environment.

Dr. Starkman holds board certification from the American Board of Urology and is an active member of the American Medical Association and the American Urological Association, continually staying updated on the latest advancements in his field. His academic work involves serving as faculty in the University of Massachusetts urogynecology fellowship program, which underscores his commitment to education and training the next generation of female pelvic surgeons.

On a personal note, Dr. Starkman is passionate about continuous learning and often reads professional journals such as the Journal of Urology, Harvard Business Review, and the Journal of Female Pelvic Surgery, ensuring he remains at the forefront of urological advancements.
