

Katalysts.net Launches AI SEO RankPRO for AI-Powered Growth

Singapore, Singapore Jul 12, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Underlining the dynamics of new age SEO, Katalysts.net, a leading SEO Agency in Singapore, has launched the AI-powered strategic SEO solution, AI SEO RankPRO, encompassing the Generative Engine Optimization \(GEO\) strategy. This strategic shift from traditional SEO practices is what growing businesses need. AI SEO RankPRO is designed to help B2B companies stay visible and competitive across the evolving landscape of AI-powered search platforms, including ChatGPT, Perplexity, Deepseek, Claude, Gemini and Google's Search Generative Experience (or SGE).

As Generative AI tools reshape the way online searches happen, traditional SEO strategies are far from sufficient. To address this, Katalysts AI SEO RankPRO is built to futureproof content marketing for B2B companies in the Fintech, EdTech, Real Estate, AI, Healthcare and other industries, enabling them to rank not only on popular search engines but also within AI-generated answers, voice assistants and Large Language Model (LLM) environments.

"The online search behavior is currently witnessing a dramatic transition. People no longer Google stuff, they simply ask AI-powered platforms like GPT," said Ms. Preeti Bhambri, Founder & CMO, Katalysts.net. "Our latest GEO framework, AI SEO RankPRO is poised to enable B2B brands to rank where the next generation of users are searching- in AI chat tools and Generative AI platforms."

AI SEO RankPRO by Katalysts combines AI-powered SEO architecture, conversational keyword mapping, schema optimization and content restructuring to gain visibility and recognition through LLMs.

It also includes performance marketing efforts across digital marketing channels to get the best out of your content marketing initiatives.

Headquartered in Singapore, Katalysts.net delivers pin-pointed Digital Marketing Strategy, SEO, SEM and Social Media Marketing solutions to B2B companies across Southeast Asia, the U.S. and Europe. With the introduction of their latest AI SEO RankPRO, Katalysts is committed to positioning itself at the forefront of AI-driven content innovation.

Katalysts is currently offering a complimentary SEO Audit to the first 20 sign-ups on their website.
