New York City, New York Jul 2, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Keno Mapp Unveils “We Have To Make A Way” – A Global Anthem of Love, Perseverance & Unity – 27 Musicians on 1 Song to help fix the World!

Today marks the official release of “We Have To Make A Way,” the highly anticipated new single by visionary artist Keno Mapp. Forged in the fires of personal battle and shaped by collaboration with 27 world-class musicians, this soul-stirring anthem transcends borders and genres—uniting listeners in a message of hope, resilience, and shared humanity.

“In every corner of the globe, we face challenges—illness, loss, uncertainty. ‘We Have To Make A Way’ is more than a song; it’s a declaration that, together, we can overcome anything.” – Keno Mapp

Why This Song Matters

- Universal Resonance: Built on an unforgettable hook and an uplifting chorus, “We Have To Make A Way” speaks directly to anyone who’s ever felt stuck, offering a powerful reminder that perseverance and solidarity can light the darkest paths.
- All-Star Collaboration: Featuring vocals from Keno Mapp, Durga McBroom from Pink Floyd, Robin Coomer & more, plus instrumental mastery by Angelo Moore of Fishbone, Eric McFadden, Ira Black, Rushad Eggleston, and 23 others, the track blends Pop, Rock, Funk, Classical, R&B & Electronica into a single, unstoppable force.
- Born from Adversity: Written amid Keno’s personal health battle, the song is a heartfelt call to action—inviting listeners to kick off their shoes, feel the sun on their faces, and step boldly into their own destinies.
